To Whom It May Concern,

SKAPARI/Jacqualin Grieg

It is my absolute please to recommend Jacqualin Grieg and Skapari Design. Jacqualin has provided interior design services to Accor on a number of key hotel projects over the past 3 years, specifically in Africa.

Jacqualin has always demonstrated a strong understanding of both the brief provided and hotel Brands involved, with the ability to adapt these to the local context. Designs were always timeous executed, though the real differentiator was the additional effort always made to ensure the implementation was in keeping with design. This was particularly apparent in a number of challenging environments/projects where execution was difficult and called for an innovative solutions focused approach.

Please feel free to contact me at should you like to discuss anything further as I would be happy to expand on my recommendation.

Yours sincerely,

CRAIG ERASMUS
